

K. U. PLAN READY

Community Project for All Clubs Complete on Paper.

General Board of Twelve Would Govern the House.

Lawrence, Kan., April 4.—Plans for what is considered by university and local officials as an "ideal" community organization, the chief purpose of which will be to meet the social and educational needs of the young people of Lawrence, have been completed. The plans have been under consideration for several months, according to officials.

The community organization will be governed by a general board, composed of twelve prominent Lawrence citizens and members of the faculty of the university. The organization, it is proposed, will take over all the activities of young people's organizations, including the Y. M. C. A., the Boy Scouts, the Girl Scouts, business men's activities, and business women's activities.

As subdivisions of the general board, an activities division and finance division are provided for. The activities division will include the following departments: Boy Scouts, boys between 15 and 25 years of age, older boys, girl scouts, business women and students. In addition to these subdivisions, the organization will have a publicity committee and a building and dormitory committee.

As general supervisor and secretary of the community organization, the body has appointed C. B. Root, who will maintain headquarters at the Y. M. C. A. In addition to the central headquarters, divisional headquarters will be maintained at three places in the city. The first action planned by the organization is the taking over of the work of the Lawrence Y. M. C. A. The community organization plan has been worked out in response to a demand for more and better supervision of the activities of young people, according to Lawrence officials. If the plan proves successful in Lawrence, it probably will be introduced in other towns in Kansas thru university officials.

Will Wrestle Here Tonight

Alan Eustace, powerful and popular Kansas wrestler, who meets Ivan Linow, the "Russian Panther," at the city auditorium in a finish match tonight.

ANXIOUS TO MEET EUSTACE

Ivan Linow, Russian Wrestler, Ready for Bout Tonight.

Ivan Linow, former Russian Cossack wrestler, extraordinary and a man hot on the trail of Champion Ed Lewis, arrived in Topeka this morning, ready and anxious to meet Alan Eustace, the Kansas grappler, in a battle of wits and holds. Linow is a tremendously big fellow and made a lot of friends here today. Topeka wrestling followers have heard a great deal about Linow, and his personal appearance justifies all that has been said about him. He appears to have everything necessary to qualify a man for wrestling, and besides has had a world of experience that will stand him in hand when he meets Eustace at the auditorium tonight.

Never before have the people of Topeka shown as much interest in a wrestling match as they are now displaying regarding the Eustace-Linow contest, and a tremendous gathering will undoubtedly see the contest. The winner will be given a match with Champion Ed Lewis, and this additional incentive will spur the men on as nothing else in the world would. Two more evenly matched men would be hard to find. They have both been wrestling for a number of years, and by reason of good work on the mat are now in line for a whirl at the heavyweight championship. It means everything to them, as the winner will go right ahead on the stream of success, while the loser will have to make a new start and build his entire career over again.

Eustace has trained faithfully and carefully for this match, and declares himself in excellent condition. He says he never felt better in his life, and if he loses he will have no excuses to offer, but will admit he met a better man. The Kansas is determined to win tonight if such a thing is possible, and without bragging or boasting, declared he did not think any man in the game today can defeat him.

Tony Ross and Young Gotch will furnish the semi-final contest, and this event ranks second only to the big affair. It is really of such calibre that many cities would use it for a main event. The American Legion boys feel they are going to give their patrons the best wrestling card ever staged in Topeka, and rejoice greatly at their ability to arrange such a wonderful program for tonight's entertainment.
